ROYAL SHORTHORNS

At the American Royal Live Stock Show

Convention Hall, Kansas City, Missouri

Thursday, November 20, 1919

|||||

Sale begins promptly at nine o'clock a. m.

|||||

Under auspices of American Shorthorn Breeders Association

Announcement

The demand for Shorthorns of the type, quality and breeding of these offered in the Royal sale is indicated by the difficulty encountered in securing consignments. Not a single animal listed in the sale was secured without a considerable amount of effort. Those solicited for consignments invariably stated that they would prefer to be buyers rather than sellers at this particular time.

A better recommendation for these cattle could hardly be given. This indicates the demand for Shorthorns of acceptable type, quality and breeding is decidedly greater than the supply.

Opportunity is here offered to breeders who wish to add popular and dependable families to those now in their herds. Upon request of the management of the sale a considerable proportion of the females are selling open, thus giving breeders an opportunity to secure individuals for mating with their own herd bulls. An exceptional opportunity is offered to beginners to secure cows with heifer calves at side as a foundation for new herds.

This is undoubtedly the most attractive lot of cattle ever offered at the American Royal. Special emphasis has been laid upon securing females which are in most desirable condition to insure future usefulness.

The seven bulls are directly descended from bulls which have been grand champions at the leading livestock shows of America. They have the type, quality, size and breeding back of them which will insure the attention of breeders who are in need of herd bulls. The names of consignors who are listed alphabetically is a further assurance of the usefulness and character of the offering.

Terms

Terms—Cash unless other arrangements are made prior to the sale with the consignor. All settlements to be made with the clerk representing the Association. The cattle will be at the buyers risk after bid off but the usual care will be given by the sellers until placed aboard cars, which will be done without cost to the purchaser.

Pedigrees—A certificate of registry and transfer will be furnished with each lot.

Guarantee—All animals of breeding age are guaranteed breeders. Cows with calves at foot need no further guarantee. All cattle are sold subject to a sixty day retest.

Auctioneers—Carey M. Jones and Wm. (Scotty) Milne.
